Reference is made to Bureau file 166-5400 captioned "AUGUST SAMUEL PALMISSANO, ET AL, IGB, OO: MILWAUKEE", Milwaukee file 166-364. It is noted that during the period of 11-24-73 to 12-13-73, the Milwaukee Office conducted a court authorized monitoring of wire communications on the telephones of [redacted] of Milwaukee.

During this monitoring of communications, captioned individual was extensively involved in gambling activities with [redacted] and was providing line information obtained by SPINELLA [redacted]

On 12-27-73, Honorable JOHN REYNOLDS, Judge, EDW, signed an order authorizing the use of a pen register on SPINELLA's phones, namely 414-332-4978 and 414-332-5288. The order was delivered to the Wisconsin Telephone Company on same date at which time the telephone company advised they would not lease a line for use of a pen register.

[redacted] and the legal staff of the Wisconsin Telephone Company conferred and as a result, [redacted] advised the Milwaukee Office that there had been an agreement between the Bell Telephone System and the Department of Justice where lines would not be leased for pen register use except in conjunction with Title III operations. The Telephone Company would provide cable pair information at the appropriate junction box under demand of lawful authority.

b7C

The Milwaukee Office was unprepared to set up appropriate equipment at the terminals involved, thus in view of this, no action was taken to connect the pen register plus the fact SPINELLA will be subjected to search warrant in referenced file and the football season is about to end.

[redacted] advised he was previously unaware of this agreement and this was the first attempt by the Milwaukee Division to obtain appropriate authority to use the pen register as an investigative technique since the 7th Circuit Court of Appeals ruled that such a device is outside the purview of the Title III statute, and thus modified a previous holding. (see In Re Korman, 13 Cr. L. 2370 (1973) and US vs. DOTE, 371 F2d 176 (1966)).

Results of prosecutive action involving FRANK GENO SPINELLA will be reported under referenced caption.

Re: Frank Geno Spinella, Also Known As
Frank G. Spinella,
Eugene Kalesek,
Illegal Gambling Business

Enclosed is a copy of a statement made by Special Agent [redacted] which was filed with the Clerk of Court, Eastern District of Wisconsin, on January 16, 1974.

As you recall, an affidavit requesting pen
register use on Frank Geno Spinella's telephone numbers, was requested and an order was signed on December 27, 1973,
by the Honorable John W. Reynolds, United States District Judge, Eastern District of Wisconsin. Because of technical difficulties in the use of the pen register and the Wisconsin Telephone Company restriction on leasing the line for pen register use, the order was not executed and the enclosed statement was therefore filed with the Clerk of Court, Eastern District of Wisconsin, by Special Agent [redacted]

Due to the above, no further investigation is being conducted in connection with this matter.

Very truly yours,

/J

AFFIDAVIT FOR COURT ORDER

I, [redacted] Special Agent, Federal

b6
b7c

Bureau of Investigation, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, being duly sworn, state:

1) That as a law enforcement officer of the United States I have reason to believe that there has been and continues to be violations of United States Code being committed at the following premises:

- a) Hackett Nursing Home, 2736 North Hackett, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.
- b) Frank Geno Spinella, also known as Eugene
Kalesek, 2832 North Summit Avenue, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

These premises, both which are located in the Eastern District of Wisconsin, are further described as follows:

Hackett Nursing Home is located on North Hackett
Avenue between East Newberry Boulevard and East Locust Street, on the east side of North Hackett, facing west.
It is a large, three-story frame dwelling, charcoal gray in color, with a stucco open porch.

The residence located at 2832 North Summit Avenue is between East Newberry Boulevard and East Park Place on the east side of the street, facing the west. It is a large, two-story frame dwelling with an attic, with a charcoal gray front and brick open porch.

2) There is probable cause to believe that there is now being concealed certain information at the above-described premises, namely information concerning the identity of individuals whom Frank Spinella is involved in accepting of wagers, obtaining line information concerning odds on upcoming sports events, and other commercial gambling activities.

3) That there is probable cause to believe these unknown individuals, along with five known individuals including Frank Spinella, Stephen John Halmo,

[redacted] and Sidney Brodson, have and continue to commit offenses involving the use of telephone communication facilities with intent to carry out a violation of commercial gambling activities, a violation of Chapter 945.03 of the Wisconsin Criminal Code; and as a result, all are in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1955, concerning

b6

the prohibition against conducting gambling business.

4) That the individual named as managing or occupying the above-described premises, namely, Frank Spinella, is the party who uses and controls the telephone assigned to said premises for commercial gambling activities. There is reason to believe the identity of these unknown individuals can be determined through the use of an electronic device commonly known as a pen register, which, when attached to the telephone facilities, [redacted]

[redacted]

5) That it is the purpose of this affidavit to provide facts constituting probable cause for the issuance of a court order authorizing the Federal Bureau of Investigation to execute said order on the telephone facilities at the above-described premises and the communications carrier, namely, the Wisconsin Telephone Company, and authorize the use of a pen register to secure evidence which will enable identification of those unknown individuals involved in the commission of the criminal offense heretofore described.

b7E

6) That it is specifically the purpose of this affidavit to seek authority to electronically detect the telephone numbers called on the telephones assigned the following numbers:

414-332-5288 and 414-332-4978

These numbers are located at the above-described premises, namely, 414-332-5288 at Hackett Nursing Home, 2736 North Hackett Avenue, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and 414-332-4978 at the residence of Frank Spinella, 2832 North Summit Avenue, Milwaukee, Wisconsin. It is requested that this order authorize the use of the above-described equipment for a period of five days to commence on or about, but no earlier than the 28th of December of this year, 1973, therefore ceasing on the first day of January, 1974.

FACTS AND CIRCUMSTANCES

Reference is hereby made to the application of the United States of America for an order authorizing the interception of wire communications of Milwaukee telephone numbers [redacted]

On November 24, 1973, an order (Miscellaneous Application Number Six) was entered by the Honorable Thomas E. Fairchild, United States Circuit Judge, Seventh Circuit, authorizing the interception of wire communications from Milwaukee telephone number [redacted]

2) I have personally participated in the conduct of the interception of wire communications as authorized by the order of the Honorable Thomas E. Fairchild, United States Circuit Judge, Seventh Circuit, on November 24, 1973. As a result of my personal participation in this investigation and of reports made to me by other Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, I am familiar with all the intercepted wire communications

[redacted]

[redacted] and others as received and transmitted on Milwaukee, Wisconsin, telephone numbers [redacted]

3) I have examined the results of the interceptions made on the above stated numbers between 8:00 a.m., November 25, 1973, to 12:00 midnight, December 13, 1973. This examination has disclosed that Stephen John Halmo, Frank Spinella, [redacted]

Sidney

Brodson, and others are utilizing the above stated telephone numbers to conduct, finance, manage, supervise, and direct illegal gambling business and are receiving and transmitting wagers and wagering information on sporting contests and horse races in the furtherance of this illegal gambling business.

During the interception period of [redacted]

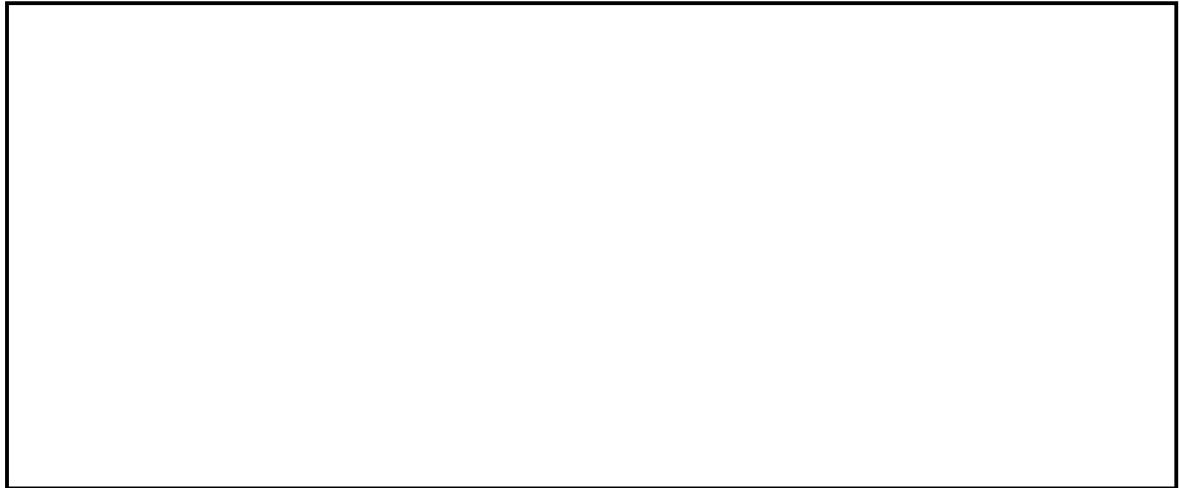

[redacted] has used telephone number [redacted] to furnish and accept line information, accept wagers on sporting contests and horse races, move wagers on sport contests, discuss the status of customer accounts, as well as discuss other aspects of the gambling business. I have listened to tapes which recorded the calls intercepted and monitored over telephone numbers [redacted] or have received reports from other agents who have listened to the above tapes, and I have also reviewed logs maintained in connection with these calls.

The following are representative summaries of calls intercepted and monitored over telephone numbers

contacted [redacted] at Asche's and asked about [redacted] whereabouts. Source stated that [redacted] felt that maybe the "heat was on" and this was the reason for [redacted] absence.

Source advised that it was very possible that [redacted] [redacted] would be the intermediary for FRANK BALISTRIERI and could possibly be considered the payoff man for BALISTRIERI. Source stated that the reason for this belief was first that STEVE DI SALVO, when he told [redacted] about their percentage from their proposed gambling operation, DI SALVO said it was BALISTRIERI that wanted the money and not DI SALVO and that DI SALVO would collect it for BALISTRIERI.

Source stated that day while in AUGIE's tavern, he overheard AUGIE talking to [redacted] AUGIE was asking [redacted] if STEVE HALMO had settled up with him yet and [redacted] said that he did. AUGIE wanted to know if [redacted] was satisfied with the settlement and [redacted] stated he was.

Source advised he obtained the line from AUGIE PALMISANO on the 20th and saw AUGIE give the line to several other individuals.

Source stated that [redacted] LNU called him on 12/19/73 and stated that he would be taking action on [redacted] [redacted] this weekend. Source advised [redacted] told him that if he didn't get him at one number, to call the other one.

On 12/28/73, [redacted] advised that he had been in conversation recently with STEVE HALMO and HALMO was complaining as to his poor health; however, his health apparently was not bothering him making a deposit at the West Allis State Bank. Source advised he was not able to determine the amount of the deposit but judging from HALMO's cautiousness, he would assume that it was adequate.

Source advised that he has not been able to place any wagers into any of the operations going on in Milwaukee as he had not been doing it for some time and apparently PALMISANO [redacted] are only taking bets from people who have been betting with them on a continuing basis.

On 1/7/74, [redacted] advised that STEVE HALMO sits [redacted]

At 12:20 p.m., an unknown white male, 5'8", 250 lbs., approximately [redacted] years of age, wearing a dark blue windbreaker with [redacted] written on the back of it, was observed talking to AUGIE PALMISSANO. The exact conversation could not be overheard; however, the unknown white male was addressed as [redacted] and he was carrying a large yellow tablet with names written on it. It appeared from the conversation that [redacted] was collecting debts of some sort, since PALMISSANO asked him if he was having any trouble getting the money to which [redacted] replied no. The names [redacted] were overheard and apparently written on the yellow tablet.

As [redacted] departed he drove away in a vehicle with 1973 Wisconsin license [redacted]. This license was later determined to be registered to a 1972 Buick two-door owned by [redacted] [redacted] Milwaukee.

 Special Agent (SA) [redacted]

[redacted] met [redacted] the building located at [redacted] Milwaukee, Wisconsin, [redacted]. He was apprised of the identity of the Agents and of the existence of the search warrant authorizing the search of the office space occupied by Shefchik, Smirl, & Duke Advertising, Incorporated located on the second floor.

[redacted] stated that [redacted] had told him to admit the FBI and he permitted the Agents access to the building through the side door. He led the Agents to the second floor, unlocked the door, and let the Agents enter the office of Shefchik, Smirl & Duke. It became apparent that the description of Shefchik, Smirl & Duke office space, which included all the offices on the second floor facing Baldwin Street, was not accurate.

[redacted] when asked about [redacted] office area, advised it was located to the rear of the building facing Baldwin Street and that Shefchik, Smirl, & Duke space had no windows looking out to the north. The offices of Shefchik, Smirl, & Duke were secured and nothing touched.

[redacted] opened the door to the middle office of the second floor facing Baldwin Street. He said it was the [redacted] and that [redacted] had his office to the left and [redacted] to the right. [redacted] was asked if one could enter these offices from the area occupied by Shefchik, Smirl, & Duke and he said no. No search was conducted of [redacted] office or any office in the building.

The matter was telephonically discussed with Strike Force Attorney [redacted], who stated the search warrant was defective and could not be executed.

The Agents left and [redacted] secured the offices and the building.

Destruction Of Paper At Residence Of Steve Halmo

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of transcription 1/17/741

At approximately 2:09 P.M. a position was taken at the northeast corner of the residence located at [redacted]. A visual observation of the rear of the house located at the above address reflected that entrance into the residence could be gained through a set of sliding glass doors which were located on the rear wall of this residence at the northeast corner.

Approximately twenty seconds later, Special Agent [redacted] who had been waiting at the front door of [redacted] was heard to shout "FBI". At that time the rear glass doors were approached and a Federal Bureau of Investigation badge was placed against the glass. Simultaneously the words "FBI, we have a search warrant" were shouted to a white male, subsequently identified as STEVE HALMO, who was observed sitting on a couch facing the sliding glass doors, approximately nine feet from the glass doors.

Without hesitation and immediately after the shouting of "FBI, we have a search warrant" the white male, later identified as STEVE HALMO, gathered papers from his lap, placing one hand on the bottom and one hand on the top, quickly moved to the fireplace, located approximately four feet from the edge of the couch upon which he was sitting, and threw these papers on top of the fire in the fireplace. A large intense flame was immediately apparent in the fireplace which lasted for a fraction of a second.

At this point, a screw driver was inserted inbetween the sliding glass door and door frame at which time the white male, later identified as STEVE HALMO, stated "No, not my door." This same white male then immediately went from the fireplace to the sliding glass door and unlocked them.

HALMO's movement from the point at which he stood up until he unlocked the door was one continuous movement and took no more than six seconds in time elapsed.

Upon gaining access into HALMO's house, an immediate effort was made to retrieve the burning paper in the fireplace.

The remnants of what appeared to be a magazine constructed of a thin tissue like paper were pulled off the top of the burning logs. However, efforts to extinguish the burning paper were fruitless. Pieces of the charred papers were salvaged. It was noted that the papers, after combustion, were floating in the fireplace.
